The contract for warranty would be for an initial period of one (1) year from the date of successful recommissioning of the equipment.

2.4 Contract Documents (Non – Disclosure Agreement)

Subject to the order of precedence set forth in the Agreement, all documents forming the Contract (and all parts thereof) are intended to be correlative, complementary, and mutually explanatory. The Bidder shall not, without prior written consent from NIELIT, disclose the Contract or any provision thereof or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample or information furnished by or on behalf of NIELIT in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the Bidder in the performance of the Contract.

Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only so far, as may be necessary for purposes of such performance. The Bidder shall not, without prior written consent of NIELIT, make use of any document or information made available for the project, except for purposes of performing the Contract. All project related documents issued by NIELIT, other than the Contract itself, shall remain the property of NIELIT and shall be returned (in all copies) to NIELIT, on completion of the Bidder's performance under the Contract if so required by NIELIT.

2.5 Confidentiality

Information relating to the examination, clarification, comparison and evaluation of the bids submitted shall not be disclosed to any of the responding firms or their representatives or to any other persons not officially concerned with such process until the selection process is over. The undue use by any responding firm of confidential information related to the process may result in rejection of its bid

2.6 Interpretation

- a) If the context so requires it, singular means plural and vice versa.

- b) Commercial Terms: The meaning of any trade term and the rights and obligations of parties there under shall be as prescribed by commercial terms. All the terms shall be governed by the rules prescribed in the current edition of commercial terms, published by the Indian Chamber of Commerce at the date of the Invitation for Bids or as specified in the bidding document.
- c) Entire Agreement: The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Purchaser and the Supplier and supersedes all communications, negotiations and agreements (whether written or oral) of parties with respect thereto made prior to the date of Contract.
- d) Amendment: No amendment or other variation of the Contract shall be valid unless it is in writing, is dated, expressly refers to the Contract, and is signed by duly authorized representatives of each party thereto.
- e) No waiver: Subject to the conditions (f) and (g) below, no relaxation, forbearance, delay, or indulgence by either party in enforcing any of the terms and conditions of the Contract or the granting of time by either party to the other shall prejudice, affect, or restrict the rights of that party under the Contract, neither shall any waiver by either party of any breach of Contract operate as waiver of any subsequent or continuing breach of Contract.
- f) Any waiver of a party's rights, powers, or remedies under the Contract must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the party granting such waiver, and must specify the right and the extent to which it is being waived.
- g) The contract shall be governed by the provisions of GFRs and instructions issued by various government organizations (e.g. but not limited to Ministry of Finance, CVC etc.) having jurisdiction to issue orders/instructions of procurement related matters. In case the provisions of Contract/Agreement/this Document are at variance with the Orders/Instructions issued by such government organizations, the Orders/Instructions will prevail.
- h) Severability: If any provision or condition of the Contract is prohibited or rendered invalid or unenforceable, such prohibition, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions and conditions of the Contract.
- i) In case of any ambiguity in the interpretation of any of the clauses in the tender document, the interpretation of the clauses by Authorized Representative of NIELIT shall be final and binding on all parties.

2.7 Language

- a) The Contract as well as all correspondence and documents relating to the Contract exchanged by the Supplier/ Bidder and the Purchaser, shall be written in English and/or Hindi languages only or as specified in the special conditions of the contract.
- b) Supporting documents and printed literature that are part of the Contract may be in another language provided they are accompanied by an accurate and authenticated translation of the relevant passages in English language. Supporting material, which is not translated in English and/or Hindi, will not be considered for evaluation.
- c) For the purpose of evaluation and interpretation of the proposal, the English and/or Hindi language translation shall prevail.
- d) The Supplier/ Bidder shall bear all costs of translation to the governing language and all risks of the accuracy of such translation.

2.8 Notices

- a) Any Notice given by one party to the other pursuant to the Contract shall be in writing to the address specified in the contract. The term "in writing" means communicated in written form with signatures. Faxes/emails shall be followed by written signed letter.

- b) A Notice shall be effective when delivered or on the Notice's effective date, whichever is later.

2.9 Applicable Law

- a) The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Union of India and the Government of Punjab.
- b) Governing Law and Choice of Forum :
 - i. The laws of India shall govern this tender process. Any suit, action or proceeding shall be confined to the exclusive jurisdiction of Courts at district Rupnagar, Punjab.
 - ii. Any suit/legal action filed by any third party on account of the goods / services provided by the bidder against any item related/pertaining to order awarded to the successful bidder shall be settled by the bidder at its own cost. NIELIT will NOT be a party to the same.

- e. To accept any bid not necessarily the lowest, reject any bid without assigning any reasons and accept bid for all or anyone options for which bid has been invited or distribute options to more than one bidder.
- f. Terminate or abandon this procedure or the entire project whether before or after the receipt of proposals.
- g. Seek the advice of external consultants to assist NIELIT in the evaluation or review of bids.
- h. Make enquiries of any person, company or organization to ascertain information regarding the Bidders and its bids.
- i. Reproduce for the purposes of this Procedure the whole or any portion of the bid despite any copyright or other intellectual property right that may subsist in the bid.

2.16 Force Majeure

- a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bid Document, the bidder shall not be liable for forfeiture of security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that, its delay in performance or other failures to perform its obligations under the agreement is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

- b) For purposes of this clause "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the bidder and not involving the bidder's fault or negligence and which was not foreseeable. Such events may include wars or revolutions, fires, floods, earth quakes, epidemics. The preventive measures for fire breakdown must be followed, otherwise will not be applicable here. The decision of NIELIT, regarding Force Majeure shall be final and binding on the Bidder.
- c) If a Force Majeure situation arises, the bidder shall promptly notify to NIELIT in writing, of such conditions and the cause thereof within 15 days of occurrence of such event. Unless otherwise directed by NIELIT in writing, the successful bidder shall continue to perform its obligations under the agreement as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

2.17 Patent Indemnity

- a) The Bidder shall, subject to NIELIT compliance with sub-clause (b) below, indemnify and hold harmless NIELIT and its employees and officers from and against any and all suits, actions or administrative proceedings, claims, demands, losses, damages, costs, and expenses of any nature, including attorney's fees and expenses, which NIELIT may suffer as a result of any infringement or alleged infringement of any patent, utility model, registered design, trademark, copyright, or other IPR registered or otherwise existing at the date of the Contract by reason of: -
 - i. the installation of the Products/Services by the Bidder or the use of the Products/Services in the country where the Site is located; and
 - ii. the sale in any country of the products produced by using the Products/materials purchased under the contract.

Such indemnity shall not cover any use of the Products/Services or any part thereof other than for the purpose indicated by or to be reasonably inferred from the Contract, neither any infringement resulting from the use of the Products/Services or any part thereof, or any Products/Services produced thereby in association or combination with any other goods, equipment, plant, or materials not supplied by the Bidder, pursuant to the Contract.

- b) If any proceedings are brought or any claim is made against NIELIT out of the matters referred to above, NIELIT shall give the Bidder a notice thereof, and the Bidder shall at its own expense and in NIELIT's name conduct such proceedings or claim and any negotiations for the settlement of any such proceedings or claim.
- c) If the Bidder fails to notify NIELIT within fifteen (15) days after receipt of such notice that it intends to conduct any such proceedings or claim, then NIELIT shall be free to conduct the same to the cost of Bidder.
- d) NIELIT shall, at the Bidder's request, afford all available assistance to the Bidder in conducting such proceedings or claim, and shall be reimbursed by the Bidder for all reasonable expenses incurred in so doing.

2.18 Limits on Promotion / Publicity / Advertisement

The selected bidders shall not perform any kind of promotion, publicity or advertising etc. at the Purchaser and their field offices through any kinds of hoardings, banners or the like.

2.19 Corrupt or Fraudulent Practices

In the event of the bidder engaging in any corrupt or fraudulent practices during the bidding process, the Purchaser reserves the right to reject such bids at its sole discretion.

For the purpose of this clause:

“Corrupt Practice” includes the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of an official of the Purchaser in the selection process. It also includes bringing undue influence through any quarter or interfering directly or indirectly in the selection process to affect its outcome.

“Fraudulent Practice” includes a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence the evaluation and selection process to the detriment of the Purchaser.

2.20 Criminal Charges and Conviction

The Bidder warrants that it has disclosed and will continue to disclose during the term of this Contract full details of all criminal convictions and all pending criminal charges against it or any of its personnel and associates that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the Bidder and the company who owns the patent of the technology being offered or the Bidder’s capacity to fulfill its obligations under this contract.

2.21 Conflict of Interest

NIELIT considers a conflict of interest to be a situation in which a party has interests that could improperly influence that party’s performance of official duties or responsibilities, contractual obligations, or compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and that such conflict of interest may contribute to or constitute a prohibited practice under NIELIT’s Procurement Ethics.

In pursuance of NIELIT's Procurement Ethics requirement that bidders, suppliers, and contractors under contracts, observe the highest standard of ethics, NIELIT will take appropriate actions against the bidder, if it determines that a conflict of interest has flawed the integrity of any procurement process. Consequently, all Bidders found to have a conflict of interest shall be disqualified.

A Bidder may be considered to be in a conflict of interest with one or more parties in the bidding process if, including but not limited to:

- a) have controlling shareholders in common; or
- b) receive or have received any direct or indirect subsidy from any of them; or
- c) have the same legal representative for purposes of the Bid; or
- d) have a relationship with each other, directly or through common third parties, that puts them in a position to have access to information about or influence on the Bid of another Bidder, or influence the decisions of the tendering authority regarding this bidding process; or
- e) A Bidder participates in more than one bid in this bidding process. Participation by a Bidder in more than one Bid will result in the disqualification of all Bids in which it is involved. However, this does not limit the inclusion of the same subcontractor, not otherwise participating as a Bidder, in more than one bid.

- 1.7.14 Bidder then logs in to the site through the secured log-in by entering their user ID / password and the password of the DSC / e-Token.

SEARCHING FOR TENDER DOCUMENTS

1. There are various search options built in the CPP Portal, to facilitate bidders to search active tenders by several parameters. These parameters could include Tender ID, organization name, location, date, value, etc. There is also an option of advanced search for tenders, wherein the bidders may combine a number of search parameters such as organization name, form of contract, location, date, other keywords etc. to search for a tender published on the CPP Portal.
2. Once the bidders have selected the tenders they are interested in, they may download the required documents / tender schedules. These tenders can be moved to the respective 'My Tenders' folder. This would enable the CPP Portal to intimate the bidders through SMS / e-mail in case there is any corrigendum issued to the tender document.
3. The bidder should make a note of the unique Tender ID assigned to each tender, in case they want to obtain any clarification / help from the Helpdesk.

PREPARATION OF BIDS

1. Bidder should take into account any corrigendum published on the tender document before submitting their bids.
2. Please go through the tender advertisement and the tender document carefully to understand the documents required to be submitted as part of the bid. Please note the number of covers in which the bid documents have to be submitted, the number of documents - including the names and content of each of the document that need to be submitted. Any deviations from these may lead to rejection of the bid.
3. Bidder, in advance, should get ready the bid documents to be submitted as indicated in the tender document / schedule and generally, they can be in PDF/ XLS / RAR / DWF formats. Bid documents may be scanned with 100 dpi with black and white option.

4. To avoid the time and effort required in uploading the same set of standard documents which are required to be submitted as a part of every bid, a provision of uploading such standard documents (e.g. PAN card copy, annual reports, auditor certificates etc.) has been provided to the bidders. Bidders can use “My Space” area available to them to upload such documents. These documents may be directly submitted from the “My Space” area while submitting a bid, and need not be uploaded again and again. This will lead to a reduction in the time required for bid submission process.

SUBMISSION OF BIDS

1. Bidder should log into the site well in advance for bid submission so that he/she upload the bid in time i.e. on or before the bid submission time. Bidder will be responsible for any delay due to other issues.

3. Bidder has to select the payment option as “offline” to pay the tender fee /EMD as applicable and enter details of the instrument.
4. Bidder should submit the EMD as per the instructions specified in the tender document.
5. Bidders are requested to note that they should necessarily submit their financial bids in the format provided and no other format is acceptable. If the prices bid has been given as a standard BoQ format with the tender document, then the same is to be downloaded and to be filled by all the bidders. Bidders are required to download the BoQ file, open it and complete the white coloured (unprotected) cells with their respective financial quotes and other details (such as name of the bidder). No other cells should be changed. Once the details have been completed, the bidder should save it and submit it online, without changing the filename. If the BoQ file is found to be modified by the bidder, the bid will be rejected.
6. The server time (which is displayed on the bidders’ dashboard) will be considered as the standard time for referencing the deadlines for submission of the bids by the bidders, opening of bids etc. The bidders should follow this time during bid submission.
7. All the documents being submitted by the bidders would be encrypted using PKI encryption techniques to ensure the secrecy of the data. The data entered cannot be viewed by unauthorized persons until the time of bid opening. The confidentiality of the bids is maintained using the secured Socket Layer 128 bit encryption technology. Data storage encryption of sensitive fields is done.
8. The uploaded tender documents become readable only after the tender opening by the authorized bid openers.
9. Upon the successful and timely submission of bids, the portal will give a successful bid submission message & a bid summary will be displayed with the bid no. and the date & time of submission of the bid with all other relevant details.
10. The bid summary has to be printed and kept as an acknowledgement of the submission of the bid. This acknowledgement may be used as an entry pass for any bid opening meetings.

ASSISTANCE TO BIDDERS

1. Any queries relating to the tender document and the terms and conditions contained therein should be addressed to the Tender Inviting Authority for a tender or the relevant contact person indicated in the tender.
2. Any queries relating to the process of online bid submission or queries relating to CPP Portal in general may be directed to the 24x7 CPP Portal Helpdesk. The contact number for the helpdesk is 1800 3070 2232.
