कार्यालय ज्ञापन सं. 11/OFFICE MEMORANDUM NO. 11

Further to OM No. 9 dated 21st April 2021, It is informed that the Ward Numbers 20 & 21 of Chathamangalam Grama Panchayat wherein NIELIT Calicut Campus is located are declared as the Containment Zone as per the Order No. DCKKD/8313/2020/F4 dated 24.04.2021 issued by Chairman, District Disaster Authority and District Collector, Kozhikode. Also, it is understood that our campus 2 has already been taken over by Civil Administration Authorities vide Order No. DCKKD/4545/2020/F4 dated /24 Apr 2021 for establishing SLTC for Covid patients..

As per the SOP on preventive measures dated 13 Feb 2021 to contain spread of Covid-19 in offices issued by Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Government of India, the offices in containment zones shall remain closed except for medical and essential services. Hence, the Centre will remain closed until the area is de-notified by the State Government authorities or until further orders whichever is the earliest.

However, Division Heads are requested to plan, schedule the activities and resources including the staff under the respective divisions to work from home and monitor the progress of the work by the work reports to ensure the achievement of set targets.

All off-line/blended mode courses may be postponed/re-scheduled immediately and all students and contract staff staying in our hostels may be informed to vacate immediately.

Only minimal number of staff may visit campus during the period, for attending essential electrical/civil/network maintenance, examination purpose and handing over of building and other assets to Civil Administration Authorities for setting up of CSLTC.
