

As an aid in the achievement of goals of Digital Literacy Mission, NIELIT e-learning Mobile Apps for Android Devices are now available in 11 Indian regional languages for Introduction to various basic Information Technology (IT) topics for beginners. The topics are part of the NIELIT Course on Computer Concepts (CCC). The apps for each of the below listed 7 topics are available in these languages: Hindi, Telugu, Tamil, Kannada, Malayalam, Marathi, Gujarati, Sanskrit, Bengali, Oriya, Urdu. These apps can be downloaded from Google Play app store.

1. Basics of Computers This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Computers". This mobile app can be used to access Computers Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Introduction, Objectives, Application of Computer, Parts of a computer, Input Devices, Output Devices, CPU and Types of Memory, Hardware and Software etc.
2. Basics of Windows This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Windows". This mobile app can be used to access Windows Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Introduction, Objectives, Operating System, Desktop Features and Windows Explorer etc.
3. Basics of Internet This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Internet". This mobile app can be used to access Internet Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Introduction, Objectives, Computer Networks, Network types and Wireless LAN etc.
4. Basics of Email This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Email". This mobile app can be used to access Email Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Introduction, Objectives, Electronic mail, Types of mail server, Mail box and Email addressing, Attaching Picture etc.
5. Spreadsheets Basics This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Spreadsheets". This mobile app can be used to access Spreadsheets Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Creating New workbook, saving the workbook, Inserting the Worksheet, Page Setup and Formatting the cell etc.
6. Word Processing This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Word Processing". This mobile app can be used to access Word Processing Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Creating a Blank Document, Working with Fonts, Creating a Table, Adding Header and Footer, Printing a document etc.
7. Presentations This app introduces the readers to the "Basics of Microsoft Presentation". This mobile app can be used to access Microsoft Presentation Basics in offline mode sourced from e-content for Course on Computer Concepts (CCC) offered by NIELIT, an autonomous body under MeitY, Government of India. It contains various modules namely Creating a New Slide, Formatting Text, Inserting a Chart, Creating a Background and sorting slides etc.